My Choices

Student Guide

Introduction

What is the My Choices programme about?

The end of Year 11 and Year 13, the build-up and immediate response to results days can be a challenging time. Faced with sometimes difficult or scary decisions about next steps, you may like some help with your thinking, particularly if your plans are uncertain or may need to change.

This guide is designed to support you on and around results days, with links to useful resources or videos to help you make the right decision for you.

The guide is also useful for you well before Year 11 and Year 13, to help you consider your choices.

Transition Event in partnership with LearnLive

On Monday August 3rd 2020, The Careers and Enterprise Company, in partnership with LearnLive, will be hosting an online event designed specifically to support you at this crucial time. There will be videos and interviews with key people to guide you through the options open to you. There will be a live chat available with qualified careers advisers, apprenticeship providers and employers on hand to answer your questions and offer you personal advice.

To register simply click on this link and fill in the details on screen. Once you have subscribed to the Learn Live channel you can gain access to all future on-demand and live stream broadcasts with just your email address without needing to register again.

On August 3rd, you can visit this link to take part. If you can't make it, don't worry, you can also visit this site to watch the recordings and the chat function will stay open for you to ask any questions.

Ways to Use this Guide

Consider what is most useful to you right now: whether that is immediate sources of support to help you make the best choice for your immediate future or something to consider helping you make longer term decisions. Look at the section headings and click on the link to take you directly to the pages that are of most interest to you.

Remember, don't limit yourself. Take the time to explore something you perhaps have not considered before. You never know, there could be a route into your ideal career that you have never considered before.

Use the chat function to ask for any support and advice about your choices and receive personalised support and guidance.

Section 1

Preparing for Results Day

Take the time to think through your options and prepare before results day. None of us know exactly how our results will turn out. We could have done better or not as well as we'd hoped. Your original plans may have been impacted by the current pandemic. Be prepared for every scenario by exploring different options beforehand.

The section includes:

The National Careers Service are running the Exam Results Helpline in August, to support 16 to 18-year olds who are receiving GCSE, A-Level and/or technical education exam results. Young people or their parents can call 0800 100 900 to speak to a professionally qualified careers adviser, for advice on their next steps during a critical decision-making period. The helpline is available daily from 8am to 10pm.

Post 18

University Clearing, Adjustment and Deferring

If you have applied to university but don't quite reach the requirements of your offer, you may like to consider clearing. Familiarise yourself, before results day, with other universities that do courses you are interested in with slightly lower entry requirements so that if you find yourself in that situation, you have already thought about other options.

- WhatUni Clearing search facility in case you find you are not able to attend your intended university choice, this will be a useful tool on results day
- Want to know more about clearing? Hello Future have a useful blog that pulls together useful links to support to support you through clearing
- For individual support from UCAS call the most appropriate number below with UCAS Personal ID number to hand:
 1. Undergraduate support 0371 468 0 468
 2. Conservatoire support 0371 468 0 470
 3. Teacher training support 0371 468 0 469
- Careermap have produced guides to support you through UCAS Clearing and UCAS Adjustment

- iCould – A levels not gone to plan? Here is a short video on life after disappointing A Level results Unsure about what next? If you've done better or worse than expected or are just having second thoughts, here's a quick guide to your options on or after results day A-level results: what now? The good, the bad and the cold feet

If you have done much better than you anticipated, you may be offered the opportunity to go through adjustment on UCAS Track. You do not have to do this, but if you wanted to explore universities with higher entry requirements, adjustment allows you to see what is open to you.

- UCAS – advice on deferring including after you receive your results
- Discover Uni has launched new resources to help you consider your options when you receive your results and enter clearing this year. The downloadable booklets contain advice on choosing to go to university or college, reviewing course choices and planning for unexpected grades, along with information on deferrals and consumer rights.
- UK University Search are offering 3 webinars in the lead up to A Level Results Day covering:
 1. 10th August – Predicted Grades
 2. 11th August – Results Day Guide
 3. 12th August Clearing, Adjustment and Deferrals
